

I support strong protection of net neutrality. I believe that you have made a grave mistake by bowing to the will of the cable companies and that it will end up giving them undue control. Please reconsider your decision

Chris Pieper